

It's Not Easy

It's not easy being your Dad today
The feelings always stay
When others talk about you now
I don't have much to say
It's just not easy being your Dad today

It's not easy being your Dad today
Although it use to be Remember those walks along the beach
when you were only three
Or the times you crossed the finish line
And always looked to me
I was always there for you
And always proud to be
It's just not easy being your Dad today

It's not easy being your Dad today
With my future full of haze
I live on hope and faith and love
Yet long for yesterdays
But I stay strong and trust my heart
To seek a better way
I'll laugh and hope for all good things
When in my heart of hearts must say
It's just not easy being your Dad today

It's not easy being your Dad today
Though I clearly understand
Your suffering has gone away
As you rest upon Gods hand
But every day goes by I know
There's nothing I can do
For one more smile, one more laugh
One more hug from you
It's just not easy being your Dad today
